Flexible Jazz Ensemble • Duo / Trio / Quartet / Quintet Available

Sally Terrell and The Green Jazz Band has been delighting audiences in the Greater Hartford area for over a decade with fresh interpretations of jazz standards, including classics from the Great American Songbook, bossa nova favorites, and jazzed up blues and pop. The band's area performances include the Wadsworth Atheneum Festival of Trees and their Jazz Brunch series, Earthstock Connecticut, Collinsville HOT Festival and Music on Main Series, Thomaston FACT Summer Concert Series, the Gershon Fox Ballroom, Society Room, and the Tunxis College Vitrano Jazz Series, as well as a Main Stage set at the Northwest Bank Lewiston (NY) Jazz Festival, along with regular appearances at local retirement communities and public libraries.

Musical Style & Repertoire

Expect an effortlessly curated setlist tailored to your needs: timeless standards, overlooked gems from mid-century jazz catalogs, and tasteful original arrangements that showcase the ensemble's artistry. The band prides itself on reading the room—whether it calls for mood-setting background music, a concert, tasteful accompaniment for a corporate awards dinner, or a festive set for your holiday party.
